NEWSPAPER TROUBLES.

The Times-Tribune Has a Family Row.

MR. HUNGERFORD IS DISCHARGED.

But He Thinks He Holds the High Cards and Refuses to Remain Discharged. Sues the Company for His Salary—Other Suits Brought. The Paper Has Had a Checkered Career.

From Monday's Daily.

There is trouble in the office of the Times-Tribune. The first official information the public had that everything was not running along smoothly, was when the paper appeared yesterday morning with a notice signed by C. S. Evans, president of the Norfolk Printing Co., stating that Ira L. Hungerford was no longer employed on that paper and warning the public to do no business with him. Mr. Hungerford has been the manager of the business since last October.

The notice yesterday morning seems to have been given because of trouble between Evans and Hungerford over the latter's salary, which culminated Saturday evening in suit being brought by Hungerford against the company for about $360, the amount claimed to be still due him.

After summons had been served upon Mr. Evans, as president of the company, he wrote the notice which was to appear in Sunday morning's paper. About midnight Hungerford discovered the copy of the notice, and taking it from the hook tore it up. The story is that Hungerford went home about 4 o'clock in the morning, and after he had gone the foreman of the office sent to Mr. Evans, and asked what should be done about the notice. Evans rewrote the notice and sent it to the office, where it was placed in type and made up in the forms. Just as the paper was about to be printed Mr. Hungerford appeared upon the scene and as manager ordered that the press be stopped and the notice removed. While the manager and foreman were arguing this point, Evans came in and under his orders the paper was printed with the notice. There was a warm time for awhile about the institution, and the Evans forces sent for a policeman to keep order, but his services were not needed.

After the issuance of the paper, both factions rested during the day, the only evidence that there was being the maintenance of a watchman in the building all of yesterday and last night. This morning Hungerford appeared at the office at the opening of business, and during the day he has been seen there, evidently laboring under the impression that he is still manager of the institution.

In conversation with a NEWS representative this morning, Mr. Hungerford said that he does not recognize the authority of the president to depose him, manager, and that he could only be discharged at a meeting of stockholders where a majority of the shares were represented. Hence he proposes to hold on, and in turn warns people not to pay money now due the concern to anyone except upon his order. He says the trouble arose over the fact that he thought it about time he received his salary, claiming he has only drawn enough to pay his board since he became manager.

Mr. Evans was seen and he states that the notice was published because Mr. Hungerford took the books home with him, and failed to return them. Mr. Evans says Hungerford was dismissed because the company had no further use for him.

The Times-Tribune seems to have had a checkered career since it branched out as a daily last August. When it started F. W. Sprague was its business manager. After running until October, he gave up the financial fight and resigned the management to Mr. Hungerford. When this gentleman took charge the paper had a host of old bills hanging over it, and it must be admitted that he has made a desperate struggle to maintain the business. He is to be credited with having put lots of energy into the work, but from the start he has been leading a forlorn hope, and he says he is now fully satisfied that Norfolk never did present a living field for a second daily.

In face of the most rigid economy the business has been constantly losing ground, and the claims against it now amount to about $700. Since Mr. Hungerford sued the company for his salary, other suits have been brought, and within another day it is likely all the claims will be pressing in court. The stock of the company is owned by C. S. Evans, F. W. Sprague and Mr. Gullinger. The latter now lives in Madison, and Mr. Sprague gave up the fight about three weeks ago, when he quit in disgust. He is now supposed to be in Missouri.

The future of the paper seems uncertain. Mr. Evans says that he expects to continue its publication, but a gentleman from Madison today states that it was announced there that Gullinger had transferred his stock to A. P. Childs of the Madison Reporter, who it is said will come and take the management. It is further reported from Madison that Mr. Evans is negotiating for the purchase of the Reporter, which he is to take charge of in the near future.

It must be admitted that the affairs of the concern are in a very precarious condition, and the history of its losses would hardly seem a sufficient inducement for anyone to attempt to revive it.

Grain-O Brings Relief.

to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise. 15 and 25 cents per package.

Elevator Charges.

Elevator and trimming charges on 100,000 bushels of grain in port of New York (single transfer) $1,787.50. Same amount of grain at Illinois Central elevator at New Orleans, $125.—Extract from letter of Capt. M. De Puy in New York Mail and Express of March 11, 1899.

AMBUSHED BY REBELS.

Sailors of Yorktown Fall Into Hands of Insurgents.

FATE OF THE CAPTIVES UNKNOWN

Natives Refuse to Treat With Americans.

Lieutenant Gilmore and Fourteen Men Taken—Gunboat Was Making Attempt to Release Spanish Garrison at Balen When Surprise Is Sprung.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The navy department has given out the following dispatch from Admiral Dewey:

"MANILA, April 18.—Secretary of the Navy, Washington: Yorktown visited Balen, east coast of Luzon, April 12, for the purpose of rescuing and bringing away the Spanish forces, consisting of 80 soldiers, three officers and two priests, which were surrounded by 400 insurgents. Some of the insurgents were armed with Mauser rifles.

"Lieutenant J. C. Gilmore, while making * * * ambushed were fired upon and captured. Fate unknown, as insurgents refused to communicate afterward. The following are missing: The officer previously referred to, Chief Quartermaster W. Walton, Coxswain J. Ellsworth, Gunner's Mate H. J. Hyland, Sailmaker's Mate Vendig, Seamen W. H. Rynders and C. W. Woodbury, Apprentices D. W. A. Venille, A. J. Peterson, Ordinary Seamen F. Briscoe, O. B. McDonald, Landsman L. T. Edwards, F. Anderson, J. Dillon and C. A. Morrissey. Dewey."

The *s denote portions of the dispatch which could not be deciphered.

Landsman Morrissey is from Lincoln, Neb.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The capture of the Yorktown's men was discussed with much feeling in naval circles. The misfortune was felt with added keenness, as the navy has prided itself thus far on immunity from reverses. The admiral's dispatch of yesterday was the first knowledge the department had that the Yorktown had gone on this special mission to relieve the Spanish garrison at Balen. That the capture should have been effected while the American forces were on a mission of mercy toward the Spaniards, rather than in the prosecution of a campaign, led to the belief that Spain would have no further ground for questioning the good faith with which the Americans were seeking to relieve the condition of the Spanish prisoners.

Although the dispatch gave no indication that Lieutenant Gilmore and his men had lost their lives, yet great anxiety was felt by the mystery surrounding their fate, while in the hands of an uncivilized enemy. This is the first capture of any Americans, military or naval, so that it is unknown how the insurgents will treat our men. If civilized methods were pursued an exchange could be quickly effected, as General Otis has a large number of Filipino prisoners, but the insurgents have been averse thus far to exchanging Spanish prisoners and this raises a question as to what they will do with the Yorktown's men. The purpose of officials here is to spare no effort to secure the speedy release of our men.

Philippines Strive For Peace.

MANILA, April 19.—A number of prominent and wealthy Filipinos are organizing a committee to take steps to bring about, if possible, an understanding between the rebels and the Americans. One branch of this committee intends to ask the United States Philippine commission to make a statement as to what terms will be offered the rebels if the latter will surrender. Another branch of the committee will approach Aguinaldo with the terms and will endeavor to persuade him to accept them. It is considered doubtful, however, if any members of the committee will dare to personally confer with the rebel leader. The committee includes several persons recently condemned to death by Aguinaldo for petitioning him to cease fighting.

Missouri Floods Fort Pierre.

PIERRE, S. D., April 19.—The Missouri river has backed up through a bayou and washed out about half a mile of Northwestern track east of here 20 miles. No through trains are running. The river is still within its banks on the Pierre side, but at Fort Pierre people are paddling through the streets in boats.

PUBLIC BUILDING SITE.

Bids Opened at Washington Saturday.

TWENTY-TWO SITES ARE OFFERED

They Include Locations Widely Scattered Through the Town and at Prices Ranging From $2,000 to $10,000—An Agent of the Treasury Department Will Come to Norfolk and View the Sites.

From Monday's Daily.

Real estate did not take such a tremendous boom after all, because of the fact that the secretary of the treasury had advertised for bids on property suitable for the location of a United States public building in Norfolk. As provided in the advertisement, the proposals for sites were opened on Saturday, in Washington, by Supervising Architect Taylor. The offers are as follows:

R. A. Stewart, northeast corner Norfolk avenue and Fifth street, $9,000.

C. W. Inskeep et al., southeast corner Madison avenue and Fifth street, $1,500.

L. M. Gaylord, southwest corner Phillips avenue and Fourth street, $1,000.

Lena Marquardt and Auguste Brammond, northeast corner Madison avenue and Fifth street, $7,500.

John Koenigstein, northwest corner Norfolk avenue and Seventh street, $5,500; same northeast corner Koenigstein avenue and Eighth street, $3,500; same southwest corner Phillips avenue and Seventh street, $2,500.

C. and A. Karo, southeast corner Phillips avenue and Fourth street, $3,500.

E. G. Wilkinson, northeast corner Madison avenue and Third street, $2,000.

George Davenport, southeast corner Braunschweig avenue and Fourth street, $2,500.

Isaac C. Powers, northeast corner Madison avenue and Fourth street, $4,750.

Adam Reseland et al., corner Second and Main streets, $9,500.

F. A. Bryant, Norfolk avenue between Second and Third streets, $9,500.

John L. Zochler, Braunschweig avenue and Fourth street, $2,650.

Mrs. D. R. Daniels and T. F. Memminger, southwest corner Norfolk avenue and First street, $5,000.

Margaret Hite and Julia H. Egbert, southwest corner Madison avenue and Fourth street, $8,000.

C. B. Burrows, southeast corner Madison avenue and Fourth street, $5,000.

C. B. Burrows, same location, smaller lot, $4,000.

Carl Wilde, northwest corner Park avenue and Fifth street, $2,700.

Fred E. Hardy, southeast corner Norfolk avenue and Eleventh street, $2,000.

C. B. Durland, southeast corner Norfolk avenue and Sixth street, $10,000.

Mary S. Braasch, southwest corner Phillips avenue and Ninth street, $6,000. It is announced from Washington that the supervising architect or an agent of the treasury department will visit the city and select the site.

The offers are all low, when the market price of real estate is taken into consideration, and the government will have no difficulty in securing a good location at a mere nominal figure.

Twenty Men From Engineer Corps Take French Leave at Honolulu.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—The following advices from Honolulu under date of April 11 were received by the steamship Opa. Twenty-three of the Japanese who took part in the recent riot at Kahuku plantation will have to stand trial. Six of the men are charged with murder and 17 with rioting.

Ruling Favors Bankrupts.

FORT DODGE, Ia., April 19.—An important ruling has been made by J. A. O. Yeoman, referee in bankruptcy for this district, in the C. F. Wennerstrom bankruptcy case, which has just closed. The ruling is relative to the clause in the code which exempts fuel and provisions for the bankrupt for six months. Referee Yeoman held that inasmuch as very few men if they were honest in their intention to turn their property over to their creditors, have laid in a supply of provisions and fuel for six months, that an equitable interpretation of the clause would necessitate the allowance of money in lieu of the provisions that had not been kept in supply.

Decision Said to Be Against Dreyfus.

LONDON, April 19.—The Paris correspondent of the Times, M. de Blowitz, referring to the rumors that the court of cassation will abridge the Dreyfus revision inquiry in order to enable the government to go before the chamber of deputies with a well defined situation, and that its decision will be against revision on the ground of the nondiscovery of new facts, says: "Such a solution would only result in a continuance of the struggle in a more violent and dangerous form than ever not only in France but throughout the civilized world."

Discuss Monetary Legislation.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 19.—Six hours were devoted by the Republican monetary commission yesterday to the consideration of monetary legislation. There will be morning and afternoon sessions and if occasion demands night sessions will be held. Yesterday's session was devoted rather to expression of opinions. The next few days will be occupied by discussions intended to define the attitude of the friends of the establishment of the gold standard and the retirement of the greenbacks.

Boils and Pimples Give Warning.

AN UNFAILING SIGN THAT NATURE IS APPEALING FOR HELP.

When Nature is overtaxed, she has her own way of giving notice that assistance is needed. She does not ask for help until it is impossible to get along without it. Boils and pimples are an indication that the system is accumulating impurities which must be gotten rid of; they are an urgent appeal for assistance—a warning that can not safely be ignored. To neglect to purify the blood at this time means more than the annoyance of painful boils and unsightly pimples. If these impurities are allowed to remain, the system succumbs to any ordinary illness, and is unable to withstand the many ailments which are so prevalent during spring and summer.

Mrs. L. Gentile, 2904 Second Avenue, Seattle, Wash., says: "I was afflicted for a long time with pimples, which were very annoying, as they disfigured my face fearfully. After using many other remedies in vain S. S. S. promptly and thoroughly cleansed my blood, and now I rejoice in a good complexion, which I never had before."

Capt. W. H. Dunlap, of the A. G. S. R. R. Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: "Several boils and carbuncles broke out upon me, causing great pain and annoyance. My blood seemed to be in a riotous condition, and nothing I took seemed to do any good. Six bottles of S. S. S. cured me completely and my blood has been perfectly pure ever since."

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

is the best blood remedy, because it is purely vegetable and is the only one that is absolutely free from potash and mercury. It promptly purifies the blood and thoroughly cleanses the system, builds up the general health and strength. It cures Scrofula, Eczema, Cancer, Rheumatism, Tetter, Boils, Sores, etc., by going direct to the cause of the trouble and forcing out all impure blood.
